

The Cleric

Clerics are intermediaries between the mortal world and the distant planes of the gods. As varied as the gods they serve, clerics strive to embody the handiwork of their deities. No ordinary priest, a cleric is imbued with divine magic.

You must have a Wisdom modifier of +1 or higher in order to multiclass in or out of this class.

- (a) a light crossbow and 20 bolts or (b) any simple weapon

Spellcasting

As a conduit for divine power, you can cast cleric spells.

Cantrips

At 1st level, you know three cantrips of your choice from the cleric spell list. You learn additional cleric cantrips of your choice at higher levels, as shown in the Cantrips Known column of the Cleric table.

Spell Slots

The Cleric table shows how many spell slots you have to cast your cleric spells of 1st level and higher. To cast one of these spells, you must expend a slot of the spell's level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

You prepare the list of druid spells that are available for you to cast, choosing from the cleric spell list. When you do so, choose a number of cleric spells equal to your Wisdom modifier + your Cleric level (minimum of one spell). The spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots. You can change your list of prepared spells when you finish a long rest.

For example, if you know the 1st-level spell Animal Friendship and have a 1st-level and a 2nd-level spell slot available, you can cast Animal Friendship using either slot.

Spellcasting Ability

Wisdom is your spellcasting ability for your cleric spells, since the power of your spells comes from your devotion to your deity. You use your Wisdom whenever a spell refers to your spellcasting ability. In addition, you use your Wisdom modifier when setting the saving throw DC for a cleric spell you cast and when making an attack roll with one.

Spell save DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Wisdom modifier

Spell attack modifier = your proficiency bonus + your Wisdom modifier

Ritual Casting

You can cast a cleric spell as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag and you have the spell prepared.

Trait Improvement

When you reach 2nd level, and again at 4th, 6th, 8th, 10th, 12th, 14th, 16th, and 19th level, you can improve upon one of your traits listed below. You have the following choices:

- Gain an additional Stress Slot
- Gain a +1 bonus to a Saving Throw
- Gain a +1 bonus to your Initiative
- Gain proficiency in a skill, tool, or language. This option may only be chosen twice.

Divine Domain

At 1st level, you choose a domain shaped by your choice of Deity and the gifts they grant you. Your choice grants you domain spells and other features when you choose it at 1st level. It also grants you additional ways to use Channel Divinity when you gain that feature at 2nd level, and additional benefits at 6th, 10th, 14th, and 18th level.

Domain

Light

Domain Spells

Each domain has a list of spells-its domain spells that you gain at the cleric levels noted in the domain description. Once you gain a domain spell, you always have it prepared, and it doesn't count against the number of spells you can prepare each day.

If you have a domain spell that doesn't appear on the cleric spell list, the spell is nonetheless a cleric spell for you.

Channel Divinity

At 2nd level, you gain the ability to channel divine energy directly from your deity, using that energy to fuel magical effects. You start with two such effects: Turn Undead and an effect determined by your domain. Some domains grant you additional effects as you advance in levels, as noted in the domain description. If you use a Channel Divinity while another is still active, the previous effect immediately ends.

Channel Divinity: Turn Undead

As a Major Action, take a Stress and speak a holy prayer against the undead. Each undead that can see or hear you within 30 feet of you must make a Will saving throw. If the creature fails its saving throw, it must spend its turn trying to move as far away from, and can not willingly move closer to you. It can't take reactions and can only take the Dash action or try to escape from an effect that prevents it from moving.

Pious Role

At 3rd level, you gain benefits from the role you performed within your religion's organization or how you practiced its doctrine. Choose one of the following roles:

- Archivist. You spent your days delving through knowledge and research to know your deity better. You gain proficiency in Arcana and may always ritual cast any spell with the ritual tag in the cleric's spell list without preparing it. The spell can not be a level higher than your highest spell slot.
- Insquisitor. You were an enforcer, a weapon for your deity against enemies outside and even inside the organization. You gain proficiency with martial weapons and once per turn, you may add your Wisdom modifier to the damage roll of a weapon or spell attack.
- Preacher. You have committed the rites to memory and can speak for hours to spread your deity's wisdom. You gain proficiency in Performance and may use your Wisdom modifier as the basis of your Fortitude saving throws.

Ability Improvement

When you reach 4th level, and again at 8th, 14th, 16th, and 19th level, you can increase two ability modifiers of your choice by 1. Alternatively, you can increase only one ability modifier of your choice by 1 and gain a Feat. As normal, you can't increase an ability modifier above +5 using this feature.

Destroy Undead

Starting at 5th level, when an undead fails its saving throw against your Turn Undead feature, the creature is instantly destroyed if its challenge rating is at or below a certain threshold, as shown in the Cleric table above.

Divine Intervention

Beginning at 9th level, you can call on your deity to intervene on your behalf when your need is great. As a Major Action, expend up to all of your Heroic Inspiration and describe the form of assistance you require. The DM chooses the nature of the intervention, though the more Heroic Inspiration you use, the greater the effect should be.

After using this feature, you can't use it again until 7 days have passed. At 20th level, your call for intervention no longer requires Heroic Inspiration.

Light

Gods of light – including Helm, Lathander, Pholtus, Branchala, the Silver Flame, Belenus, Apollo, and Re-Horakhty – promote the ideals of rebirth and renewal, truth, vigilance, and beauty, often using the symbol of the sun. Some of these gods are portrayed as the sun itself or as a charioteer who guides the sun across the sky. Others are tireless sentinels whose eyes pierce every shadow and see through every deception. Some are deities of beauty and artistry, who teach that art is a vehicle for the soul's improvement. Clerics of a god of light are enlightened souls infused with radiance and the power of their gods' discerning vision, charged with chasing away lies and burning away darkness.

Warding Flare

Also at 1st level, you can interpose divine light between an ally and an attacking enemy. When a creature that you can see within 30 ft. of you attacks another creature, you can take a Stress as a reaction to impose disadvantage on the attack roll. You must do this before knowing if the attack hits or misses. An attacker that can't be blinded or does not need to see is immune to this feature.

Channel Divinity: Radiance of the Dawn

Starting at 2nd level, you can harness sunlight to smite your foes. As a Major Action, expend a Heroic Inspiration and present your holy symbol, dispelling any magic darkness within 30 ft. of you. Additionally, each creature of your choice within 30 ft. of you that can see you must make a Fortitude saving throw. A creature takes radiant damage equal to 2d10 + your cleric level on a failed save, and half as much on a success.

The amount of damage dice increases when you reach 5th (3d10), 9th (4d10), 13th (5d10), and 17th (6d10).

Improved Flare

Starting at 6th level, when you use your Warding Flare feature, the target has disadvantage on all attack rolls until the end of its turn.

Potent Spellcasting

Starting at 10th level, you add your Wisdom modifier to the damage you deal with any cleric cantrip.

Blinding Radiance

Starting at 14th level, when you use your Channel Divinity: Radiance of the Dawn feature, creatures that fail your saving throw are also Blinded until the end of your next turn.

Corona of Light

Starting at 17th level, you can use your Major Action action to activate an aura of sunlight that lasts for 1 minute or until you dismiss it using another Major Action. You emit bright light in a 60-foot radius and dim light 30 feet beyond that. Your enemies in the bright light have disadvantage on saving throws against any spell that deals fire or radiant damage.

While the target is within 60 feet of you, it gains a +1 bonus to AC and saving throws, and it has resistance to all damage. Also, each time it takes damage, you take the same amount of damage. The spell ends if you drop to 0 hit points or if you and the target become separated by more than 60 feet. It also ends if the spell is cast again on either of the connected creatures. You can also dismiss the spell as an action.
